FUNDS FOR STATE MILITIA.

Government Will Be Asked to Approve $2,000,000 a Year.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The adjutants general of the military organizations of the states will hold a conference in this city today, with a view to obtaining increased appropriations from congress for the citizen soldiers over that now provided by law.

Congress now appropriates $100,000 for supplying the militia with arms and accoutrements, which is allotted among the several states according to their needs and number of men enrolled. An increase of this amount to $2,000,000 per year will be asked for a limited time, at least until the militia is thoroughly equipped with all the requisites necessary to put the organizations on a footing that will find them prepared for any service for which the government may call on them.

Dyspepsia can be, and is cured by the use of PAIN-KILLER. This is the most wonderful and valuable medicine ever known for this disease; its action upon the system is entirely different from any other preparation ever known. The patient while taking this medicine may eat anything the appetite craves. Avoid sub-titutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis' Price 25c. and 50c.

FULLER TO HANG IN APRIL.

Final Sentence on the Murderer of Mrs. Eugenia Pottle.

MACON, March 13.—Allen Fuller, the negro who murdered Mrs. Eugenia Pottle last fall, will be hanged on April 2. The remittitur in the case has been received from the supreme court, and Judge Felton has passed final sentence.

When Fuller came in court he was trembling, and it was with the greatest difficulty that he managed to stand. When asked by Judge Felton if he had anything to say before the final sentence was passed on him, he said:

"I am an innocent man, and you are going to take my life for what another man did. I had no more to do with the killing of Mrs. Pottle than you did. I was only there when old man Redd struck her with a stick. It's hard to die for what some one else did."

Judge Felton said that he believed him guilty, and sentenced him to be hanged on Monday, April 2.
